It is not as restrictive as some thing. For the board, CASAC and standing committees owning stock is not an issue. Encourage everyone to submit their name. It becomes an issue on a panel review where a company could benefit from the findings of a specific review. Board, CASAC and standing committee members can recuse themselves if necessary for an individual review. Source of funding is not an issue. Industry, gov etc funding does not count. Stock and salary does for specific reviews. In short, encourage everyone to apply, if someone is conflicted they can recuse themselves from a specific review. Will get on your calendar next week to fill you in. If someone has questions have them call me any time or they can call my staff.

Have a great weekend.
